This is a reminder that Membership Dues are to be paid before December ends. If you haven't paid, you will be dropped from the Membership Roster and will no longer receive the newsletter.

JANUARY MEETING

CKAG will hold its first winter meeting on Saturday, January 13 at 10 a.m., provided the weather cooperates.

There will not be a program. Members will work on art projects of their choice.

Bring artwork for Artist of the Month. This will be an Open Theme.

Artist of the Month Themes

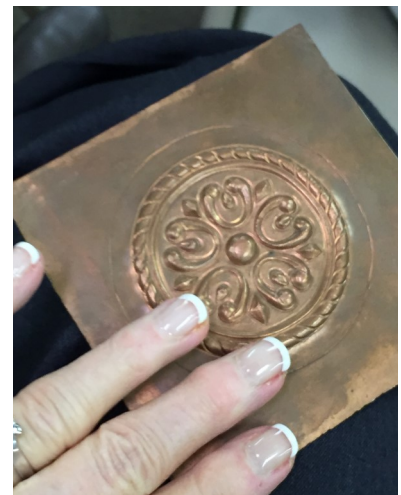

March	Warm & Snuggly
May	New Life
July	Let's Celebrate
September	Leaves

All other months are Open, including January-February

NOVEMBER PROGRAM

Tom brought many of his tools and items he has done with his chasing & embossing method. He is going to use that title for what he does instead of repousse. He also brought a lovely new piece, which incorporates movement with intricate wings. All of the attendees paid close attention, examined the pieces, and found the program very interesting.

NEW MEMBER—

We'd like to extend our heartiest welcome to Ann Stradley, our newest Patron Member. Ann is from Hodgenville and works in watercolor. She has a BA in art education from WKU. She has exhibited in several venues including the Bardstown Art Gallery. She is currently building her own studio and gallery in Hodgenville.

POSSIBLE WORKSHOP

There is a potential workshop being discussed. It would last for 1-1/2 days and cost $168.75 per person. Instructor would like to have exactly 8 students. Two of our members have expressed interest. I was wondering if Elsie might also be interested. Any of you who might know an oil painter not in our Guild and who may be interested in attending, you might speak to them about it. We would need to find 8 people to make this work. Dates have not yet been decided.

MINUTES OF NOVEMBER MEETING

President, Mary Lou Hall, called the meeting to order at 6:30 p.m. on November 20. There were no first time visitors present.

MEMBERSHIP: There are 22 registered members, but several members have yet to renew their membership.

TREASURY: Per the newsletter, our balance is $2,183.28.

WORKSHOPS: There is a possibility of CKAG having an oil workshop taught by Rhonda McEnroe. The workshop would be 2 days long and have exactly eight students. A moderate level of experience would be required. Assuming we can get the eight students to register, the price per student would be $168.75. there will be more discussion regarding this during the December meeting.

PROGRAMS:

The tentative program for March will be by CKAG member, Sandy Moss, who will discuss website production and protection of art.

OLD BUSINESS:

CKAG 25th Anniversary

Mary Lou suggested that in honor of this momentous event, all members—past and present—be allowed to participate. Motion was made by Paula Haynes and seconded by Charlotte Brammer. The motion passed unanimously. A suggestion was made to have a special section to display work by members who have passed away.

Our Place

Mary Lou would like to see more paintings hanging in Our Place.

ARTIST OF THE MONTH:

Only three paintings were submitted this month and the minimum for voting is five. Therefore, all three artists, Paula Haynes, Rose Cooper, and Gwen Yarbrough, were awarded three points.

Submitted by Debbye Hassell

Check out the video by Paula Haynes on YouTube entitled, “Three Hearts Bonded”.

Even if you don't want to sell your pieces, it is a great opportunity to gain exposure and potential commissions. Contact for ECTC Library Exhibit is Joyce Lupresto.

I have been to the "new, improved" Morrison Gallery to see what our shows there will look like, and I've been favorably impressed with the changes. I am working up a floor plan for myself, Rachel, and CKAG so we can calculate how many/what size pictures the walls can accommodate. There is no hanging system decided upon as yet.

My Artist of the Year Show will be the very first show in the new space, and is scheduled to begin on January 16 and end on February 9, 2018. The opening reception will be on Friday, January 19 from 5-7 p.m. I am working out what I want to do about refreshments, and will have further information soon.
