Minutes of Meeting

CKAG held their General Meeting on December 16, 2013. The meeting was called to order by President, Debbye Hassell, at 6:31 p.m. Nine people were in attendance, including guest, Betty O'Rear. Juanita McCoy attended for the purpose of taking the Minutes of the Meeting.

Debbye reported that the balance of the bank account was unchanged from the previous month. Carl McKinley, Membership Chairperson, was not present but had sent a message that if anyone wanted to pay their dues while at the meeting they could do so. Elsie Hall mentioned that Theresa needs more images for the website and encouraged members to send along with biographical info.

Old Business: Discussion was held regarding furnishing the CKAG meeting place. Mary Lou Hall, who was not present, had been looking into finding a mirror for the Guild. The utility sink has been installed. Karen Hart mentioned that she has a couple of bookcases she would be willing to donate to CKAG. Moving them would require a truck and someone able to carry the bookcases from her basement to the truck. It was suggested that someone could help Karen with this after the holidays. No one has picked up Nona Atkisson's donation to the Guild. It was again recommended that we wait until after the holidays to do this.

Joyce Lupresto reported that she has spoken with the college regarding the 2015 CKAG All Member Show. We are on their waiting list for the middle of August/first of September. This date will allow the college to get word out to students that the show will be held and hopefully we will gain better attendance. Elsie recommended holding the Artist of the Year show at Our Place and having the All Member Show consistently at the college. She feels that having it at the college each year the public will get used to it being there and will be expecting it. We will have further discussion on this at the next meeting.

Debbye announced that Gail Bagwell's husband had passed away and Elizabeth Parks had lost her grandson due to an auto accident. She also reported that Mary Lou had had her back surgery and was recovering from that. Appropriate cards were signed by CKAG members and will be mailed to those members.

Jo Friel, who was scheduled to give the program, was not at the meeting due to having a root canal and wisdom tooth extraction. Joyce will try to schedule Jo for the March meeting.

There being no further business to discuss, the meeting was adjourned at 6:50 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

THERESA SHELTON OIL PAINTING WORKSHOP

Theresa Shelton, a long-time award-winning member of Central Kentucky Art Guild, will teach a special oil painting workshop at Our Place at 790 North Dixie Suite 500, Elizabethtown, Kentucky, on Saturday, May 24, 2014, from 10 a.m.-3:30 p.m. Details are below on the Reservation Form, which will need to be mailed with a check to the Workshop Chairman, Jo Friel, by May 17. Space is limited—so reserve early.

Theresa is a very talented artist who paints still lifes and landscapes. She has agreed to teach a class using one of her still life paintings as a guide. A photo of one of her beautiful still life paintings is shown below.

Anyone who has ever wanted to learn oil painting or who is already an experienced painter will enjoy the workshop. Theresa will use the paint-along-with-me technique to demonstrate how she obtains the composition, depth of color, and color harmony in her paintings.

This will be the third workshop in a series, which CKAG is sponsoring using well known, talented, and award-winning artists from the central Kentucky area. If you would like to become acquainted with art and artists in this area, these workshops are a good way of doing so. CKAG is a multi-media group featuring artists who work in oils, watercolor, graphite, pastels, and other media. Periodic workshops offer an opportunity to see how they work and discover new media in which one might be interested.
