Minutes of August Meeting

Twenty art lovers attended the August 18, 2014, meeting of CKAG at Our Place, 790 North Dixie Suite 900 in Elizabethtown. Three visitors were present including Anita Friess, a friend and student of Phyllis Blakeman, Lois Cousins, a friend of Debra Beyerlein and assistant with the Zentangle program, and Carlene Priddy who visited last month.

Debbye Hassell recognized our visitors and then reported the Treasury balance of $2,734 at the end of July. Membership dues are $30 and are to be paid at the September meeting.

Mary Lou Hall agreed to continue to chair the Business Exhibit committee and accepted commitments for the next series of paintings to be hung. She stressed the importance of retrieving paintings in a timely manner in order for new paintings to be hung on September 15.

Jo Friel reminded the group about the Marilyn Matthew's upcoming "Flowers in Watercolor" workshop on September 6, 2014, at Our Place from 10 a.m. to 3:30-4 p.m. Cost of workshop is $25. Checks should be made payable to CKAG and sent to Jo. The CKAG program for September will also be presented by Marilyn and is entitled, "Air Tracing", a transfer and enlarging process for watercolor.

Betty O'Rear and Elsie Hall volunteered to serve as judges for the Grayson County Fair Art Exhibit at Leitchfield on August 27.

The Heritage Council will be having a brainstorming session for interested parties at the State Theater on August 21 at 5:30 p.m. to entertain ideas for improving downtown Elizabethtown.

Phyllis Blakeman reported that the art auction held August 15 as part of the Taste of the Heartland fundraiser for the Community Health Clinic was less than successful this year. Although the fundraiser met and exceeded their goal, participating in bidding for the donated art was sluggish. Phyllis questioned if the art category should be continued next year. Much thanks to Guild members who donated paintings.

Via Colori street painting is scheduled in downtown Elizabethtown on Saturday, September 13, 2014.

A vote approved allowing non-CKAG members access to the CKAG Facebook page. It was suggested that Juanita McCoy be asked to update and manage the Facebook page.

Wild Earth Gallery is sponsoring a beginning pastel workshop with Gary Jennings on August 30, 2014, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Those interested must pre-register with the gallery.

The 43rd Annual Lincoln Days Celebration at Hodgenville is coming up. Art show submissions begin with registration and deliveries on September 1. Deadline for entry and deliveries is September 23 at the Lincoln Museum. The entry fee per piece is $10 or 3 for $25. The opening reception is September 28 from 2-4 p.m. at the Lincoln Museum Community Room located at 60 Lincoln Square, Hodgenville. Official rules are available at www.lincolndays.org/events/artshow

Vanessa Swisher, a board member for Habitat for Humanity, asked for CKAG support in painting small decorative birdhouses, which will be table decorations for the September 11 Humanitarian Award/Fundraiser dinner honoring Bill Swope. Vanessa suggested a design theme depicting State of Kentucky logos, such as sports mascots and the state butterfly, the Viceroy. Vanessa can be reached at 270-900-0240 or swisherv@yahoo.com

The business meeting ended and was followed by refreshments and voting for Artist of the Month.

Respectfully submitted,
Elizabeth Parks

PROGRAM: Debra Beyerlein presented the timely and much anticipated program, “Zentangle”, assisted by Lois Cousins. Participants received a primed bowl-shaped gourd or a primed quart flower pot, patterns, instruction sheet, and specialized “Identipen” for completing this mesmerizing project. Thank you, Debra, for bringing Zentangle, the art form which is sweeping the art/craft world, to CKAG!
