The Business Exhibits will need to be changed around our meeting date on December 15. I would like for everyone to be thinking where they would be able to hang from December until March. This time period is one month longer than usual and thus gives the artist good exposure. Some of you who are recently juried or do not attend meetings regularly, think about showing your work and possibly selling. You may call Mary Lou Hall as shown below and indicate a preference as to where you would like to exhibit.

CKAG MEMBERSHIP DUES were due and payable September 1 for the coming year. Please complete the form below, cut out and either bring to the next meeting or mail as indicated on the form. If dues are not paid in December, you will be dropped from the membership roster.
