Program: We will have an art material expo. There will be tables set up with various art media with which to experiment. Marilyn Matthews will demonstrate watercolors, Paula Haynes will do mixed media, and Mary Lou Hall will show pastels. Debby Hassell will bring her pens/pencils. We are asking each of you to bring along one or more of your favorite art items, tool, or gadget—especially something new or unique.

PRESIDENT’S MESSAGE

I want to thank a number of people who were at the May meeting of CKAG. Foremost would be Joyce Lupresto for the extremely informative and interesting program. I also want to thank all the members who helped straighten chairs and empty coffee pots at the end of the meeting. Thanks to Tom for being such a gentleman to wait for me outside and see that I was safely on my way. I want to thank those who brought paintings for our walls and to Marilyn and Debra for their suggestions, which sparked the idea for our program this month.

It is time that we enjoy ourselves more and actually do art-related activities. I want to make coming to the meetings a fun thing. See what we have planned for our Program in the Meeting Information part of the newsletter.

Mary Lou Hall

HAPPY SUMMER!

Minutes of Meeting—May 20, 2018

President, Mary Lou Hall, called the meeting to order at 6:30 p.m. Ten members were present and three visitors: Kim Mann, Jo Anderson, and Carol Weathers. Kim heard about the Guild by doing an online search and Jo and Carol had been informed of the group by a friend.

MEMBERSHIP: Those present were asked to help review and update past and present membership roles in preparation for mailing invitations to the 25th Anniversary All Member Show in August.

TREASURY: Per the newsletter, our balance is $2241.58. (Correction—balance was $2206.58)

BUSINESS EXHIBITS: Tom Hammett has completed the task of photographing and measuring the Business Exhibit locations. He will bring the information to the next meeting. Charlotte Brammer asked for volunteers to hang their artwork from June 18-September 17. Gwen Yarbrough volunteered to hang her artwork in the Hardin County Library location. Other exhibits still need to be filled and juried members are asked to contact Charlotte if interested in exhibiting their artwork.

PROGRAMS: Paula Haynes, Program Chair, was not present, but by phone reported that the June meeting was to be an educational video. After discussion about the cost of a screen to use for the video presentations, a motion was made by Joyce Lupresto to purchase one up to $100. Charlotte Brammer seconded the motion and it passed unanimously.

OLD BUSINESS: Vice President, Jo Friel, went over the plans for the All Member Show, which had been detailed in the May newsletter. Everyone was encouraged to send in their registration as soon as possible. The last day to enter is August 10. Karen Hart will contact area newspapers with advance notices. Thomas Hammett agreed to help with the photography of the winners. Karen will also ask Debbye Hassell to assist with photography at the opening reception. Those present were asked to sign volunteer sheets for food donations for receptions on August 24 and September 17.

ARTIST OF THE MONTH: Phyllis Blakeman and Gwen Yarbrough entered paintings. No vote was taken as there were not five entries. Phyllis and Gwen will receive points for entering.

PROGRAM: Joyce Lupresto gave an interesting and educational demonstration of one technique of beginning a pastel painting using turpentine to create an “underpainting”. She brought two beautiful finished works to show the effect. The program was enjoyed by all.

Meeting adjourned at 8:20 pm.
