2017-2018 ARTIST OF THE YEAR

We’re proud to announce Paula Haynes as our newest Artist of the Year. Paula received 29 votes during the AofM voting. Paula will keep us informed of her AofY exhibit.

PRESIDENT’S MESSAGE

With the 25th year exhibit, we seemed to have passed a milestone. Luci Mistratov, in judging our show, recognized and acted upon this. We have honored our founders and long-time members, who have worked faithfully for 25 years.

Many of us are feeling the need to rest and withdraw from an active a role in the club. That means that the younger and newer members have a choice to make. If the Guild is to continue, someone must accept a position of leadership. In July or August, I should have established a Nominating Committee. I apologize for failing to do so. Now we are in an urgent situation.

Jo Friel and I have made some contacts and have gotten these acceptances for nomination positions. Tom Hammett will accept the nomination for President, Debbye Hassell for Vice President, and Juanita McCoy for Treasurer. Karen Hart will remain as Publicity and Historian chair. Theresa Shelton will still maintain the Website. Juanita will continue in Membership and Newsletter.

Marilyn Matthews will work on the committee for Workshops but we need others to assist her. Therefore, we are left needing a Secretary and will accept volunteers. We also need a chairperson for Programs, AofM, Business Exhibits, and Hospitality.

With a growing membership and some excellent programs, which we have had this year, I feel we are in a good position to move forward with our next 25 years.

Mary Lou Hall

A big Thank You to Wes Kendall for an excellent program last month. Roy Frye

And the comments I have heard, everyone in attendance at that meeting agrees with that sentiment. J McCoy

"The show was a great success this year with several people who were first-time winners as well as those who had won in previous years. Everyone contributed some of their very best work, and some people tried different media, styles and subjects than they have exhibited in the past. It is a lovely show, and a big thank-you goes to Rachel Ray for hanging it so that it all shows to the best advantage. Also, thanks to those who contributed the delicious variety of food---it was all eaten enthusiastically! Congratulations to all winners and contributors!" Visit the CKAG website for more photos of the show.

Thanks, Jo Friel
