MARCH MEETING—OUR PLACE

March 18 2019, at 6:30 p.m. at Our Place, 790 North Dixie Suite 900, Elizabethtown, Kentucky.

Theme: Interiors

Program: Eddie Price will be coming to talk to us about making our own children's books. Eddie is a renowned author of historical fiction and children's books.

February Program:

The program was a showing of drawings done at the previous workshop.

KY CRAFTED OUTING—MARCH 16

CKAG is planning a trip to Kentucky Crafted the Market at the Kentucky Horse Park in Lexington. The group will leave at 8:30 a.m. on March 16. If you plan to attend, be at Our Place by 8 a.m. Tom Hammett and Paula Haynes (if needed) will be driving their vans. If you plan to leave your car parked all day, please park in the row closest to Dixie. Leave the spaces close to businesses for their customers.

ASSOCIATES of DERMATOLOGY BUSINESS EXHIBIT

Mary Lou visited the office of Associates of Dermatology on North Dixie for the purpose of using it as another Business Exhibit location. They are still in the process of building out and should contact her when final arrangement of their TVs is set. It appears that there will be enough wall space for four paintings.

APRIL DRAWING WORKSHOP

Gwen Yarbrough has found a live model (a 16-year old girl) for the drawing workshop in April.

New Member

CKAG would like to welcome our newest member, Bradley McLean, from Elizabethtown. Brad works with watercolor, acrylic, and oils. He has enjoyed drawing & painting since childhood and continues to do so as time permits. His brief art training was at the community college where he earned an Associate Degree. He would like to advance fine art in our area and network with other artists.

Member News

Minutes of Meeting-January 21, 2019

The meeting was called to order by President Tom Hammett at 6:38 p.m. with eight members present and one visitor, Rebecca Tatro. Ms. Tatro attended the meeting because she gleaned information from the CKAG's Facebook page.

No quorum for voting. Not enough pictures for an Artist of the Month selection; however, second place votes were awarded to Phyllis Blakeman, Mary Lou Hall, and Gwen Yarbrough. Donny Noppadon also brought a piece of his artwork.

Approval of Minutes: There were no minutes to approve as December was our Christmas dinner.

Announcements and Reminders:

The February workshop will be on February 16 from 10-noon. This will be a drawing workshop. All workshops will be held the third Saturday of the month.

March 14 and 15, 2019—Kentucky Crafted the Market at Kentucky Horse Park, Lexington, Kentucky

March 16—CKAG Outing to Kentucky Crafted the Market

Hardin County Fair will be the week after July 4. Need CKAG to submit art.

Thoughts of President, Tom Hammett:

Community Project—Paint a mural somewhere in the community. Discussion followed for locations—Our Place, Hardin County Museum, ECTC, Basketball Museum, south side of Elizabethtown. Tom challenges the group to think about a location. Members expressed concerns about the maintenance of such a project and past experiences were stated as well.

Paula announced: Kentucky Arts Council—Traveling show of veterans will be the month of June at the Carl M. Brashear Radcliff Veterans Center. They have asked CKAG to assist with hanging the displays on June 2 and 3. Paula has pro panels for the displays. Reception will be June 4.

The program of “Show and Tell” of Christmas experiences through expressions of art was very interesting and much fun!

Meeting adjourned.

Respectfully Submitted,

Beverly Heady, Secretary

Minutes of Meeting-February 18, 2019

The February meeting was called to order at 6:53 p.m. by President Tom Hammett with 11 members present making a quorum for voting.

Correction to the January minutes: The dates for Kentucky Crafted the Market are March 15-17, 2019. A motion to approve the minutes as corrected was made by Mary Lou Hall and seconded by Phyllis Blakeman. Motion was approved.

President Tom Hammett reported a balance of $2,247.48 in the Treasury.

Mary Lou reported that we have a new business for displaying artwork. Associates of Dermatology on North Dixie will be accepting art. They would like a display of a Kentucky themed work. Since the business is new, we will hear more about the details for displaying work later.

Radcliff Tourism Center has 4 places available for art, and Joyce Lupresto volunteered to fill those spots. The Cecilian Bank has 8 available spots. Mary Lou will solicit the membership via e-mail to fill those. Another venue requesting a display of art from CKAG is the Larue County Library, Hodgenville, Kentucky. Along with displaying art, the library requests the artist give a presentation at their monthly meetings on the 1st Thursday of each month. Tom Hammett will be presenting his art in May. A sign up sheet was circulated among members present for volunteering to present and display art.

Resolution: The Saturday workshop will be year round on the Saturday before the scheduled CKAG monthly meeting.

Discussion followed: Joyce stated that the workshops build comradery among members. Everyone enjoys the interaction it brings with each other through the learning experiences. All members felt that the workshops should be open to the public. If the Saturday workshop requires a live model, it was decided that CKAG members would give $5 each toward the model's time and expenses.

Announcements and Reminders: We will not have a Saturday workshop in March. CKAG is planning an outing to Kentucky Crafted the Market, Kentucky Horse Park, Lexington, Kentucky, Saturday, March 16, 2019. Members may ride with Paula and Tom as they will be taking their vans. Members who want to go should be at Our Place by 8 a.m. Departure will be at 8:30 a.m. and will return to Elizabethtown between 5:30-6 p.m. Admission is $8. If weather is bad, Tom will post details on the CKAG Facebook page.

Matt Deneen, Elizabethtown Greenspace, contacted Tom Hammett and invited CKAG to set up their easels and paint at Freeman Lake Park on April 20. Those paintings will be donated for a public auction that evening with proceeds going to Greenspace.

Tom asked the membership to read his article in the February newsletter regarding the lack of publicity for central Kentucky artists.

Since Cobbler's Café is closing, The Cecilian Bank will now be the venue displaying the artwork for Artist of the Month.

Artist of the Month: 1st—Charlotte Humphress 2nd—Joyce Lupresto 3rd—Tom Hammett

Meeting adjourned.

Respectfully Submitted, Beverly Heady, Secretary
