President, Debbye Hassell, called the meeting to order at 6:45 p.m. via Zoom. There were 7 members present, no visitors.

I. TREASURY: As of November newsletter: $2,113.11.

II. MEMBERSHIP: Please remember to pay yearly dues of $30.

III. WEBSITE: Theresa Shelton reports that some of the photos from the All Member Show were unusable. Members are asked to check the website to see what pictures are present, which ones are missing, and then see if they have any photos to help fill in the gaps.

IV. BUSINESS EXHIBITS: No info

V. PROGRAMS & WORKSHOPS: No info

VI. OLD BUSINESS:

A. Christmas in the Park: Kim Mann reported that the medals were around $9 each and the total came to $57.24. Kim gave the medals to our POC, Ashley Brown, who will deliver them to the six 1st place winners (K-5th grade).

VII. NEW BUSINESS:

A. Artist of the Month Themes:

2021 themes for Artist of the Month are as follows:

January: People Working (Gardening, housework, etc)

March: Texture

May: Nature

July: Perspective

September: Using more than medium

November: Sunsets

Alternating months are Open.

B: Creative Mini Challenges

Did a few at the start of quarantine.

Some other ideas:

1. Virtual gallery tours
2. “What are you up to?: Videos or presentations showing what other members are working on.
3. “Rotating Studio”.. Videos/presentations of other members’ studios.
4. Exchanging Artistic/Handmade Envelopes. The assembled members really enjoyed this idea, so we will be moving on this pretty quickly. The purpose of this is to keep creative juices flowing and to send positive and encouraging words to other members on a monthly basis. At this point, the idea for this is send a message via snail mail. Guidelines are being formed, and I hope we can start rolling on this starting in February.

Meeting Adjourned at 7:25 p.m.

Submitted by Debbye Hassell

ARTIST OF THE MONTH:

No winner was chosen because only two entries were submitted electronically. Entrants were Terri Friel and Mary Lou Hall. They will be awarded 3 points for submitting an entry.

FUTURE AofM THEMES:

From now on, entries should be submitted to Kim Mann. Submissions should include the image, it’s title, artist’s name and the medium. The plan now is for entries to be submitted early enough to allow members to vote on the works the week before the meeting and for the results to be announced at the meeting. Send to Kim Mann at kimberly.dawn.mann@gmail.com

An invitation to something I enjoy every Thursday:

Join members of Sketchbook Skool--and others—on Thursdays at noon (EST) for “Draw With Me.”

Danny Gregory (author of many books, and originator of Sketchbook Skool---SBS) hosts a virtual meet-up, with a simple art project, for about 40-45 minutes weekly.

It’s fun, it’s free, and it’s already up-and-going (as we in CKAG are figuring out how we can keep each other energized in artmaking).

“Draw With Me” is on YouTube, live at the moment it’s happening. Past sessions may be found by date.

The “live chat” is a fun way to chime in, if you like. I usually do once or twice.

See you there!

Another Idea: Capture a funny-face selfie on your phone. Do a line drawing of it. Maybe add some cross-hatching---or whatever the process suggests.

Don’t take it too seriously.
