FEBRUARY MEETING-ZOOM

Saturday, February 13, 2021, at 10 a.m. ZOOM MEETING

Theme: Open

PLEASE NOTE THIS MEETING IS A SATURDAY MORNING RATHER THAN OUR USUAL MONDAY EVENING. Monday meetings will start back in March.

For the time being, meetings will be conducted via Zoom. I will be sending links by email and through the Google group, so please be on the lookout for meeting links. As we go forward, we will be testing other ways to communicate and transmit information.

MEETING MINUTES—JANUARY 18, 2021

President, Debbye Hassell, called the meeting to order at 6:30 p.m. via Zoom. There were seven members present. No visitors.

B: Creative Envelope/Letter Exchange

Members signed up to take part in the Creative Envelope/Letter Exchange. This will be an opportunity to stay creative and send each other positive messages in these challenging times. For more information, please see the website for guidelines, YouTube links, and a few envelope folding templates. <http://centralkyartguild.com/projects/>

C: The Rotating Studio—Show Us Your Workspace

A new activity we will be adding to our meetings will revolve around members showing off their studios and works in progress. If you would like to participate, you have two options:

1. Create a short video where you give us a tour. The video will be shown during the meeting.
2. Show us your space “live” during the meeting. If you attend the meeting on a portable device, turn the camera around and show us what you have!

Theresa Shelton will show us her workspace at the February meeting.

VII. NEW BUSINESS:

A. Artist of the Year

Congratulations to our 2020 Artist of the Year: Gwen Yarbrough

B. All Member Show

Since we don't have a Vice President this year and the VP is the head of the committee for our All Member Show, I wanted us to get a head start on how we are going to handle the show this year. The general consensus was for entrants to send photographs of their works to Theresa Shelton and for her to load them onto the CKAG website for the show to be held virtually. There will be further discussions on this at future meetings.

C. Bylaws

Kim Mann wanted to know how much time must pass between when a member is Artist of the Year and when they can start resubmitting entries for Artist of the Month. The assembled members weren't sure. She also inquired as to how many pieces an artist may submit for AofM. This issue has never been addressed. Based on this, an examination of the Constitution and Bylaws may need to be done.

D. Workshops

Marilyn has been trying to arrange for us to have a scarf dying workshop with Sharon Milliner. Marilyn was informed that the technique is labor intensive and not suitable for a 1-day workshop.

Meeting Adjourned at 7:20 p.m.

MEMBER NEWS

Mono Printing Anyone?

CKAG artists, I wanted to refer you to a YouTube source that I am enthralled by these days. Dan Tirels, a UK artist, has many videos of his mono printing processes. His mark making fascinates me, and his sense of design is apparent.

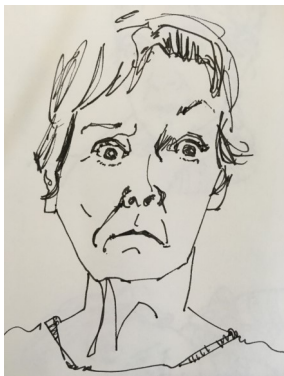

I find these a refreshing departure from the majority of YouTube videos because most of Dan’s videos are without sound, except for that made by his materials. I also love that some of his material is repurposed—things that usually go in the trash or recycles. His work speaks of ecological concerns.

The piece, “Zoom In”, that I am entering in this month’s Artist of the Month is an experiment inspired by Tirels.

Marilyn Matthews

I’ve been working more than a month on 6 commissioned oil paintings of birds and needed a break! I’ve been watching journaling artists on YouTube and decided it was time to play. This has been so much fun. Little 5x7 watercolors with black ink doodles. Highlights were made with a white gel pen. Wishing I had gold paint or pen!

Funny-Face Selfies

Last month it was suggested that you capture a funny-face selfie on your phone and then do a line drawing of it. One of our members submitted this drawing. If you’ve done this, send them to me and I’ll publish in the newsletter. Keep them coming!
