B: The Rotating Studio—Show Us Your Workspace

A new activity we will be adding to our meetings will revolve around members showing off their studios and works in progress. If you would like to participate, you have two options:

1. Create a short video where you give us a tour. The video will be shown during the meeting.
2. Show us your space “live” during the meeting. If you’re attending the meeting on a portable device, turn the camera around and show us what you got!

We ran out of time at the February meeting, so Theresa Shelton will show us her workspace at the March meeting.

VII: NEW BUSINESS:

A: Bylaws: The majority of the meeting was spent making changes and clarifications to the Constitution and Bylaws.

An Article for Artist of the Month and Artist of the Year was added. The language stating that no newsletter would be sent out in January and February was removed.

Members who win Artist of the Year will not be allowed to submit to Artist of the Month for the next year. A member cannot win Artist of the Year for two consecutive years. Motion made by Anna Miserendino and seconded by Joyce Lupresto. Motion passed unanimously.

Members will only be allowed to submit one entry for Artist of the Month. Motion made by Anna Miserendino and seconded by Paula Decker Haynes. Motion passed unanimously.

The point spread for winners of Artist of the Month will be listed in the Bylaws. Motion was made by Anna Miserendino and seconded by Paula Decker Haynes. Motion passed unanimously.

B: Meetings: The question was asked when we will return to in-person meetings. Infections seem to be going down and things are looking promising. However, we don’t want to undo the progress we have made. As for now, we will continue with the Zoom format. Hopefully, in-person meetings may be able to resume by late summer or early fall.

In the meantime remember that we have two Artist of the Year winners who need to have their own shows, and we have the All Member Show for which to prepare. I will also encourage members to feel free to present activities and challenges to the group.

Meeting adjourned at 10:40 a.m.
