

The Guild News—Feb 2022

Meeting—February 12, 2022

CKAG will meet Saturday, February 12, 2022, at 10 a.m. at Our Place, 790 North Dixie Suite 900, Elizabethtown, Kentucky

Program: We will have a live model so bring your art supplies.

Artist of Month Theme: Open

PRESIDENT’S MESSAGE:

Generally after someone has put on a special project, it is recommended they take some time to evaluate the results. Therefore, I think we should give some thought to our student art exhibit. What did we learn? I think we agree that the prospectus should include greater details as to our framing requirements. We learned that it is vital to get the backing of the art teachers. Our entrants were all from schools where the art teachers promoted the event. We learned that we need more opportunities for students and families to view the art—maybe including evening hours. I want each of you to think about what we should do differently and what we did well.

It was suggested that next year we have a theme. Be thinking of what that might be. We need to set dates so that we can promote this earlier in the school year. The E’town art teacher suggested that the time was pretty good and maybe could be in February. He also felt we should have a fall opportunity for students to exhibit without prize money. We need to establish a more interesting title for the art exhibit.

Feel free to come to the meeting with any ideas of your own about how to improve upon this project.

Mary Lou

STUDENT ART EXHIBIT 2022

Considering this was our first student art exhibit, we were very impressed by the number of art entries and the talent displayed by these students. We hope to make this a yearly event and by this time next year, all the kinks will be worked out.

CKAG members viewed the exhibit and judged the artwork on various criteria. After much discussion, the following students were awarded 1-3 place and an honorable mention.

Norea Watson, "In the Stars"

"In the Stars" by Norea Watson (1st Place)

Judges noted originality, personality, multi-media used well, value contrast, various textures, good composition, unusual contours, creative, and presented correctly.

"Baldy" by Rachel Oliver (2nd Place)

Judges noted good contrast, interesting mark making, various textures, good composition, striking effect, and very expressive.

Rachel Oliver "Baldy"

Molly Jones "Dreams"

"Dream" by Molly Jones (3rd Place)

Good movement and flow in the composition, value contrast, skillful modeling, and depth.

Untitled painting by Sydney Powell (Honorable Mention)

Judges noted dramatic mood and mystery, colorful contrast, folksy charm and placement.

Sydney Powell "Untitled"

MEETING MINUTES: January 15, 2022

President Mary Lou Hall called the meeting to order at 11:07 am. There were 12 members present. (NOTE: There was more emphasis on social distancing, mask wearing, and sanitizing considering the current Covid situation). This meeting was after Paula Haynes' hands-on demonstration of Negative Space Painting that began at 10 a.m. and before the group set up to judge the Student Art Exhibit.

Comments from the President:

Special thanks to Debbye for supporting CKAG as President for the last 2 years. CKAG would not have survived Covid and a lack of volunteers if she hadn't have stepped up and filled several roles for the group. Special thanks to those who volunteered for CKAG positions this year. Thanks to Juanita for all she does for the group.

I. TREASURY: Ending balance is $2,215.15. Please pay your dues by mailing a check payable to Central Kentucky Art Guild to Juanita McCoy at 790 North Dixie Suite 800, Elizabethtown, KY 42701. No further comments offered.

II. MEMBERSHIP: (no report)

III. WEBSITE: Website is active. No further report.

IV. BUSINESS EXHIBITS: Debbye reports nothing is changing this month. Business Exhibits will change March 21. If any juried member wants to be a part of the Business Exhibits, please contact Debbye.

V. PROGRAMS/WORKSHOPS: After discussion, the programs to be conducted in conjunction with the CKAG meetings for the next few months will be as follows: February 2022—Live Drawing; March 2022—Kim Mann presents oil pastels, and April 2022—Watercolor Hacks (tips & tricks). For the April program, members should bring in palettes and gadgets they use for watercolor, and show the group any kind of tip or hack they use in their technique and process.

Workshop discussion included a May workshop by Joyce Lupresto—presenting soft pastels. The following are tentative details: Saturday, May 14 from 10 a.m.-3 p.m. Bring own supplies. $40 per person and open to the public. Paula noted that Sandy Hester may be available in the summer to provide a workshop on painting loosely. Mary Lou suggested a "big event" at Our Place. Paula suggested Larry Elmore presenting oil painting. Paula agreed to contact Larry to find out if he would be available for a program.

VI. OTHER BUSINESS: Paula made a motion to have March's CKAG meeting on a Saturday, like January and February, since the days are still shorter, and we have members who can't drive at night. Debbye seconded the motion and all were in favor. March's meeting will be March 12 at 10 a.m.

Paula made a motion to have a Junior Membership for high school aged youth. Anna Miserendino seconded the motion and all were in favor. Junior Membership affords high school aged youth all the benefits of the Guild (except Business Exhibits), their own category (paying half the entry fee) in the All Member Show, competition alongside all other members in the Artist of the Month and a discounted $15 annual fee. Kim volunteered to write the amendment to the CKAG Bylaws to be ready for the next business meeting.

Paula asked if fiber artists should be included in CKAG. Points discussed included: a lack of fiber art knowledge in the Guild body, the opportunity to include another medium and the artists it may bring, Kathy Loomis (prior AMS judge) is a fabric artist. Sharon Milliner of Mt. Washington is a good POC to possibly help get a fabric artist guild started. CKAG could assist in helping get a fabric artist guild started. Some members wanted to include fabric artists and some were hesitant. All agreed to “stick a pin in it” and give it some research and thought. Members should consider it and it will be discussed again in the next meeting.

Announcements:

Gwen Yarbrough sold her first painting at Lincoln Days.

George Bauer received Honorable Mention at Lincoln Days.

Wes Kendall received First Place at Lincoln Days.

Meeting Adjourned at 11:52 am

Respectfully Submitted,

Kim Mann

PROPOSED CHANGES TO BYLAWS
