MEETING MINUTES: February 12, 2022

President Mary Lou Hall called the meeting to order at 10:04 am. There were 13 members present.

Comments from the President:

Welcome to four new members present, two regular and two junior members (JM).

I. TREASURY: Ending balance is $2,39015. Please pay your dues by mailing a check payable to Central Kentucky Art Guild to Juanita McCoy at 790 North Dixie Suite 800, Elizabethtown, KY 42701. No further comments offered.

II. MEMBERSHIP: We have had several new members (both regular and junior). Welcome new members in attendance: Karen Callahan, Jackie Gerard, Molly Jones (JM) and Josie Jones (JM).

III. WEBSITE: No further report.

IV. BUSINESS EXHIBITS: Debbye Hassell asked for folks to sign up for March 21-June 20. Gwen Yarbrough will hang in The Cecilian Bank until June since she is just getting her pieces hung. Paula Cohn will hang in the Hardin County Public Library, Paula Haynes volunteered to hang in the Home of Philanthropy, and Kim Mann will hang in the Associates of Dermatology.

V. PROGRAMS/WORKSHOPS: The programs to be conducted in conjunction with the CKAG meetings for the next few months will be as follows: March 2022—Kim Mann presents oil pastels, and April 2022—Watercolor Hacks (tips & tricks). For the April program, Debbye will begin an email correspondence on what members would like to know or share regarding palettes and gadgets they use for watercoloring.

Workshops: Paula provided the following update: Sandy Hester will not be available to provide a workshop this summer, but she does offer online classes. Paula will talk with Larry Elmore about providing a CKAG workshop sometime this summer.

CKAG will tentatively offer a May workshop by Joyce Lupresto—presenting soft pastels. Saturday, May 14 from 10 a.m.-3 p.m. Bring own supplies. $40 per person and open to the public. In June Paula will lead a workshop in making magazine journals. Details TBA.

VI. OTHER BUSINESS: Bylaw Amendment: The group agreed on the proposed changes to the By-laws including Junior Membership additions and the insertion of “and March” to Article III Section 3. Mary Lou noted the importance of keeping the changes simple to avoid future amendments.

At the January meeting, Paula asked if fiber artists should be included in CKAG. The group agreed, for the sake of time, to keep the pin in it and decide on this at the March meeting. Points discussed in January included: a lack of fiber art knowledge in the Guild body, the opportunity to include another medium and the artists it may bring, Kathy Loomis (prior AMS judge) is a fabric artist. Sharon Milliner of Mt. Washington is a good POC to possibly help get a fabric artist guild started. CKAG could assist in helping get a fabric artist guild started. Some members wanted to include fabric artists and some were hesitant. All agreed to “stick a pin in it” and give it some research and thought. Members should consider it and it will be discussed again in the next meeting.

Artist of the Month: 1st place—Karen Callahan, 2nd place—Dyann Joyce, 3rd place—Paula Decker Haynes

Meeting Adjourned at 11:52 am

Respectfully Submitted,
Kim Mann

If you have any unused art or collage supplies that you would like to donate, please bring them to Our Place. Leave them on the front table for other Guild members to use.
