ITEMS TO DISCUSS AT MEETING

When we have fewer than 5 paintings for Artist of the Month, let's vote for one piece to hang at the allotted location. However, all pieces (including the one voted to hang) will only receive 1 point for submitting.

Is there anyone in the Guild who could teach us how to make our own ribbons for events to save money? WE ARE ARTISTS. Surely we could figure this out.

MEMBER NEWS

Joyce Lupresto has been in and out of the hospital recently. Please continue to pray for a speedy recovery for her.

As you know, Theresa Shelton has a home in Fort Myers, Florida. Her home received about 3 foot of water in the recent hurricane. She lost a lot of furniture and appliances. The stuffed items and paper products (some art supplies) will need to be thrown out. She had recently purchased a new vehicle and that was flooded.

Tim is in Florida assessing the situation. He says the house structure appears stable. Theresa is staying here until they can make the place livable by using her studio with a concrete floor. In spite of all this, Theresa seems to have a positive attitude.

MINUTES OF MEETING—September 19, 2022

President, Mary Lou Hall, called the meeting to order at 6:35 p.m. There were 14 members with no visitors.

I.TREASURY: The ending balance as of August 31, 2022, was $2,542.46.

II.MEMBERSHIP: No new members to report.

III.WEBSITE: No report.

IV. BUSINESS EXHIBITS: The Business Exhibits switch out on September 19 and will stay in place until December 19. Dyann Joyce will be at the Hardin County Public Library; Paula Decker-Haynes will be at the Oaklawn Branch of The Cecilian Bank; Joyce Lupresto will be at the Associates of Dermatology; Karen Callahan will hang at the Home of Philanthropy; and a new exhibit at Hammer & VanZant Dental office will feature Gwen Yarbrough's art pieces.

V. PROGRAMS/WORKSHOPS: In October Debbye Hassell will provide pencil techniques. The group will go through Ian Roberts, "Five Steps to Good Design" in November, and in December the members decided to have our traditional Christmas potluck and art exchange. During the December meeting, members can create a small piece of art to give away at the gathering.

During the September meeting, Dyann Joyce demonstrated how to make small charms from epoxy and resin. Members were able to make their own individual charms.

On October 15 from 9 a.m.-3 p.m., Larry Elmore will provide an oil painting workshop for $100 each participant. Paula needs two more people to sign up in order to have at least six participants. Paula will be sending out a list of supplies needed for the event, no later than October 1. Please contact Paula Decker-Haynes if you are interested.

VI. OLD BUSINESS: Aspiring Young Artists Exhibit reminder— For folks who are communicating with the area high schools, please remind them of this opportunity before Thanksgiving. (Committee: Paula Decker-Haynes, Dyann Joyce, Kim Mann).

The application deadline is December 20. Saturday, January 14 is the date students will deliver their artwork to Our Place. Then on Saturday, January 21 the reception will be held from 10-12 a.m. The flyer will include a photo showing how to wire the back of the art. Artwork without frames/wires will not be accepted. Size limitation is 24" x 36".

All Member Show: Artists need to pick up your art pieces on October 3.

VII. NEW BUSINESS: The Art Envelope exchange will start back in January. Members who are interested should sign up with Debbye Hassell who volunteered to run the exchange again for the group. The Art Envelope exchange was started during Covid to not only share art with each other via mail—but to share art with those who would see the mail. Originally the goal was to make an envelope with art on it or decorate a pre-made envelope and send it to the person assigned to them. Over the Covid time period, members started encouraging each other by sending notes and art pieces inside the envelopes as well.

Announcement/Reminder: Kroger will give awards to nonprofit organizations of your choice, and CKAG is one of those nonprofits. If you look up Kroger Rewards online and go under subscriptions, you can donate your rewards to CKAG.

Meeting adjourned at 7:25 p.m. Next meeting will be October 17 at 6:30 p.m.

Respectfully Submitted,
Kim Mann

Artist of the Month: Only 4 members participated with their lovely interesting collages. The following members will be awarded 2 points each for Artist of the Month—Karen Callahan, Dyann Joyce, Paula Decker Haynes, and Tina Perkins-Draper. Next month’s theme is Open.

Only one point was given to each of the above artists.

**Per the CKAG Constitution & Bylaws, if there are less than 5 entries in an Artist of the Month contest each entrant will be allotted one (1) point.
