MINUTES OF MEETING—October 16, 2023

CKAG President, Paula Decker-Haynes, opened the meeting after Debbye Hassell led the Guild in reviewing the Kentucky Watercolor Exhibit.

Following the program, the meeting was called to order at 7:00 p.m.

MEMBERSHIP/ATTENDANCE: 10 members were present. No visitors. Current membership is 31 members, 3 being junior and 2 honorary.

TREASURY: The balance in the CKAG account at the end of September was $1,789.44, down from the previous month of $2,260.03.

WEBSITE: The group discussed how to get the Aspiring Young Artist link highlighted on the website. Since the QR code links people back to the website, members discussed how Theresa Shelton can add something to the top of the front website page to direct people to the Aspiring Young Artist QR code.

BUSINESS EXHIBITS: Paula confirmed members have their art hanging at the designated exhibit spaces. The following members have their art hanging until December 18, 2023.

Hardin County Library: Mary Lou Hall

The Cecilian Bank: Marilyn Matthews

Associates in Dermatology: Paula Decker-Haynes

Home of Philanthropy: George Bauer

Theresa Shelton informed the group she had a piece hanging behind the receptionist desk at The Home of Philanthropy and it fell. Unfortunately the frame was damaged. She recommended if anyone hang there, the piece should be lightweight.

PROGRAMS/WORKSHOPS:

Marilyn Matthews reported nothing new for programs and workshops.

◇ November 20: Neurographics by George Bauer

◇ December 18: Art Exchange at our annual Christmas party. Members explained to new members how the December meeting goes and details of the art exchange. CKAG members bring a small wrapped piece of art to exchange.

SECOND SATURDAY on November 11, Paula Haynes will model in her clown outfit.

OLD BUSINESS:

Junior Art Exhibit: Letters will be sent out in December. Paula suggested members still follow up with the art teachers to be sure they received the letter with entry form.

Art in the Park: Kim Mann reported the Art in the Park poster contest is a go this year. CKAG members, via e-mail, expressed a desire to provide judges and medals at the cost of $48 plus tax. Paula, Malinda Sieg, and Kim volunteered to judge the elementary school poster contest either Monday or Tuesday, November 6-7 at 10 a.m. Kim will coordinate with the Nolin POC and order the medals. The medals will be handed off to the Nolin POC the day the posters are judged.

NEW BUSINESS:

Marilyn provided information about Sunwise Open Studio Celebrations on Saturday, November 4, from 12 noon-6 p.m. and suggested it would be a great Guild day trip. Marilyn is a personal friend with the studio owner, Kathleen O'Brien, and highly recommends Guild members travel out to this event if able. Several members were interested in carpooling.

2024 CKAG Office Positions: Paula asked standing officers if they wanted to continue in their positions and asked other members if they wanted to fill a position. Malinda volunteered to fill the Publicity chair. Mary Lou said she would fill the Business Exhibits position. Everyone else agreed to stay in their current positions. Formal voting of these members will take place next meeting.

Announcements: CKAG had six members who entered the Lincoln Days Art Show. Three members placed, two 1st place ribbons and one 2nd place.

Artist of the Month: Four members participated. Therefore, all four will receive one point each. Members were Malinda Sieg, Paula Decker Haynes, Marilyn Matthews, and Theresa Shelton.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:35 p.m. The next meeting will be November 20, 2023.

Respectfully Submitted,
Kim Mann

2nd Saturday Plein Air paint session at the home of Mary Lou and Larry

PROGRAMS/WORKSHOP REPORT: Marilyn Matthews

I've been doing some thinking about possible ideas for CKAG 2024 Programs or Workshops. These are some we might consider. We could, if time allows at the December meeting, brainstorm for 10 minutes on possibilities for Programs & Workshops in 2024.

- *Eco Printing
- *Signing your art
- *Color schemes
- *Subject-based or Design-based paintings? (Ian Roberts)
- *How to cut a mat
- *Personality Doll workshop with Paula Decker-Haynes

“For me, reacting to the painting as it’s happening in this very moment in front of me keeps me slightly on the edge of the ‘twilight zone,’ where anything can happen. It’s the best part about painting.” Robert Burridge
