MINUTES OF MEETING— December 15, 2025

Program: There was no program. Members enjoyed our annual Christmas dinner and art exchange.

The meeting was brought to order by President, Paula Haynes at 6:38 p.m.

Membership/Attendance: Eight members were present. There were no visitors.

Treasurer's Report: The balance as of November 30, 2025, was $1,336.85.

Website: Any information needs to be sent to Theresa Shelton.

Business Exhibits: Hardin County Library is back in rotation. Mary Lou Hall is currently hanging there. Regarding the Grayson County Library, the only people who see our art are the people who use this room. Paula Haynes is going to look into the possibility of us hanging art at the ECTC-Leitchfield Campus.

Old Business: 2026 Officers—There were not enough members to vote on these tonight, so the voting will take place at the January meeting. Members are encouraged to attend.

Secretary—We still do not have a Secretary for 2026. If you're willing to step up, please contact Debbye Hassell.

New Business:

Artist of the Month themes were selected. They appear on Page 3 of the newsletter.

Our 2025 Artist of the Year is Elizabeth Parks.

Adjournment: The meeting was adjourned at 7:06 p.m.

Respectfully Submitted,
Debbye Hassell

Artist of the Month: Only two entries were submitted. Paula Haynes and Mary Lou Hall will each receive one point.

My beloved only brother, Bill, (William Maurice Ves-sels), after nearly four difficult weeks in the ICU of Baptist-Hardin, was released on January 5, 2026. Sur- rounded by tearful family members, he made a rapid transition to the Afterlife once it was decided to dis- continue mechanical life-support measures. We trust he now rests in peace. He was 79. Arrangements for visitation are being made through Hager Funeral Home, Brandenburg, KY. Details to be posted on the Hager website.

In grief, Marilyn Matthews
